A. Livingroom

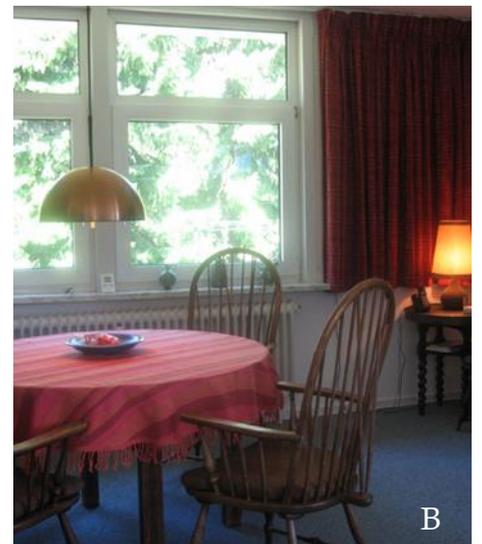

You will relax in the spacious livingroom, for example after you return from a walk along one of many trails that begin right outside the front door. For entertainment and diversion, there is cable TV and a HiFi set (with radio, CD- and cassette-player). A cordless phone completes the equipment.

B. Eating Area

In the eating-area there is a large dinner table for up to six people. A high chair for the little ones is also available. In front of the livingroom / eating-area you will find a south facing, sheltered balcony. Enjoy the splendid view across the forest to the "Bocksberg" Mountain!

C. Kitchen

The completely new, well equipped kitchen offers among the usual things a dishwasher, a stove, and a microwave oven. There is a convenient hatch that connects the kitchen and the eating area.

House "Blume" is located at the edge of the village of Hahnenklee and can be easily found:

When you enter Hahnenklee, follow the "Parkstraße", passing the "Kranicher Pond" and the Kurhaus (the spa administration, includes a tourist information), then you turn right into "Theodor-Hein-Straße".

At the next intersection, you turn left and almost immediately right again into "Langelieithstraße". After about 200 yards, you turn right down "Hühnertalweg". At its end you come to "Oberförster-Herrmann-Müller-Weg". House "Blume" is located right across the intersection (house number 12).
